

Introduction BlueCMS

Underneath some screenshots of the BlueCMS are shown, with a short explanation of a number of powerful features. For the full list of possibilities we refer you to the offer.

Page structure

Drag and drop changing the order of pages, see the page structure of the website.

Total overview of all the pages of the website with the possibility to select a page and adjust it straight away.

Edit pages

History of changes of the page for each user are shown.

So called 'what you see is what you get' text editing for the content of the pages.

Option to either or not publish the pages.

Users, languages, links

User management, adding and adjusting users.

Translate pages to other languages.

Add links to other pages, other websites, e-mail addresses, images and documents.

Searchengines, internal remarks, images

Completely optimized for search engines, possibility to improve the results in search engines.

Add internal remarks to the pages as an reminder or to communicate with other users.

Add images and position them on the pages.